ACADEMIC POSITIONS

2008 - Head, USC Cinematic Arts Library

2003 – 08 Member, Arts and Humanities Team

Work on collection development and reference initiatives; participate
In Provost's Arts Initiative.

1991- Head, USC Cinema-Television Library.

Academic Title: Associate Professor (tenured)

I am responsible for the overall management and operations of the Cinema-Television Library and Archives of Performing Arts. This encompasses long-range strategic planning, the establishment of goals and procedures, and budgeting for personnel, collection development, equipment and preservation of materials.

I oversee facilities, and personnel within the Cinema-TV Library, The David L. Wolper Center for the Documentary, The Louis B. Mayer Study Center and the Archives of Performing Arts. A major focus of my responsibilities is the cultivation of donors and the acquisition of new archival collections. I also oversee exhibits in the David L. Wolper Center and serve on the School of Cinema-Television's development team. With the Associate Dean of the School of Cinema-Television, I oversee USC's Warner Bros. Archives.

2003

Interim-Director of Public Services, Information Services Division

In this capacity, I oversaw the public service activities of the Doheny Library, The Thomas and Dorothy Leavey Library and 14 subject libraries. Public services included reference, instruction, access services and collection management. In this role, I served on the senior management team and played a role in strategic planning and budgeting and in compiling usage statistics for the University Libraries.

Chair, USC Libraries Arts Center

In coordination with the heads of the Architecture Library, the Music Library, and the Arnold Schoenberg Archive, I established strategic goals and objectives for the Arts Cluster, established policies and procedures and coordinated personnel management, training, and student wage budgets. I worked with the unit heads on all matters related to resource sharing, facilities and services.

1989-

Reference/Special Materials Librarian, USC Cinema-Television Library.

Major responsibilities encompassed supervision of reference service to students, faculty, and other researchers; the development of reference and bibliographic instruction programs, and oversight of data base instruction. I was also in charge of the processing and maintenance of the Cinema Library's special materials collections. I solicited and acquired scripts, publicity materials and audio-visual materials from Hollywood production entities.

1973-
1989

Assistant Head, USC Reference Services,

Major responsibilities included the scheduling of eight reference librarians in a social science and humanities-oriented reference department; participation with department head in planning and implementing departmental programs and services in accordance with the overall goals of the University library system; and supervision, scheduling, and coordination of the Doheny Library Information desk. I also performed data base searching functions for researchers.

1973-

1992 Bibliographer: for Performing Arts, English Language and Literature, Comparative Literature, and Linguistics

I established materials selection policies in the above disciplines, performed collection development functions, and provided faculty and graduate students with orientation programs and specialized reference assistance in using the collections.

1975 Acting Head, USC Library Science Library

I Performed all administrative functions and public service functions necessary to the operation of the library while the head was on sabbatical.

1969-

1973 Reference Librarian/University Archivist

I performed all aspects of general reference work and specialized research in Literature. I also coordinated and planned Doheny Library's exhibits and created and maintained an archival collection of materials relating to USC's history.

PUBLIC LIBRARY EXPERIENCE

1984-

1990 Beverly Hills Public Library. Fine Arts/Audio Visual Department. (Part time/on call)

I performed reference functions in Fine Arts, Music, Cinema, and Dance. I also cataloged video tapes, and performed book and media (videos, records, compact discs, books on tape, sixteen millimeter films) selection activities.

LIBRARY AND UNIVERSITY SERVICE

I have served on the following committees at various times between 1969 and the present:
