

Distance Education Master of SOCIAL WORK

DISTANCE EDUCATION IS A 3-YEAR PROGRAM AND THE NEXT ANTICIPATED ADMISSION CYCLE IS FOR 2028.

The MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK (MSW) program at California State University, Long Beach prepares graduates to serve as professional social workers who excel in all levels of practice in economically and socially diverse environments. The MSW program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) and consists of sixty (60) semester units of coursework and 1,000 hours of practicum experience.

DISTANCE EDUCATION MSW PROGRAM: The CSULB School of Social Work has offered a Distance Education MSW Program throughout California since 1995. The program is offered in partnership with the College of Continuing and Professional Education. Current distance education sites are located in the Sonoma County and Ventura County areas. Most Distance Education courses are offered via interactive television (ITV) with frequent in-person visits by experienced CSULB faculty. Students enrolled in the Distance Education program have access to online CSULB resources (e.g., library databases) and local site coordinators who attend all classes and help meet student learning needs.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE: The Distance Education MSW is a three-year program with a specialization in Child and Family Wellbeing. Three academic years (comprised of fall and spring semesters and two summer sessions) are required to complete the MSW degree. All classes are held on Saturdays. Courses are taken in a specific sequence (see sample below):

PRACTICUM EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS: Practicum experience placements are arranged locally in a community agency during the second and third academic years of the program. Each student has two placements and concurrent enrollment in practice courses during the course of study. Each placement involves 500 hours of field work, with a total of 1000 hours completed to fulfill degree requirements. Students complete 16 hours of practicum experience each week between the months of September and May. Practicum experience hours are completed through either two 8-hour weekdays or one 8-hour weekday and two 4-hour weekday periods.

STIPEND OPPORTUNITIES: Part-time California Title IV-E Education Program stipends are available to eligible employees of a County Child Welfare Service agency, County Departments of Social Services, or the California Department of Social Services. Applicants must provide a letter of support from their agency administrator/director. Each part-time stipend student recipient receives reimbursement for tuition, fees, cost for required books, and a travel allowance for each day of class or practicum experience.
