

CALL FOR PROJECTS

Compete for awards! Show off your work and research! Build your resume!

CSULB'S EARTH MONTH CELEBRATION! GREEN GENERATION SHOWCASE

Thursday, April 23, 2026 | 4-7pm
Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden

ACCEPTABLE PROJECTS & FORMATS:

Individual or team sustainability and/or climate justice-focused research posters, artwork, prototypes, interactive displays, videos, and more!

NOTE: Max Poster size 22" by 28"

AWARDS & RECOGNITION:

- Top projects in 6 categories awarded "Best in Show"
- 1 project will be selected for Edison's Excellence in Sustainability Award
- All students will receive a Certificate of Participation

JUDGING CRITERIA:

- Connection to sustainability and/or climate justice issue(s)
- Presentation of solution or call to action
- Creativity, originality, relevance, and significance
- Overall quality

DEADLINES:

SUNDAY 3/29
BY 11:59PM

Submit project abstract and description

MONDAY 4/20
BY 5PM

Selected projects must be delivered to the CSULB Office of Sustainability

THURSDAY, 4/23
4PM - 7PM

Attend the event and maybe win an award!

LEARN MORE:

Visit the linked webpage for all the details, including eligibility requirements for Edison's Excellence in Sustainability Award. Contact sustainability@csulb.edu with questions.

BEACH
SUSTAINABILITY