Faculty & Staff Best Practices: Title IX / DHR

- Duty to Report: Promptly report allegations of Discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation, Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Harassment, Stalking, Dating/Domestic Violence, and Sexual Exploitation to the Office of Equity & Compliance via the online reporting form, email or phone.
- Practice Sensitivity: Clarify to Students or Employees upfront that you will handle their concerns in a sensitive manner, but that you are not a confidential resource and have a duty to report Title IX or DHR matters to Equity & Compliance. Rights and resources will be provided.
- Confidential Resources: For Sexual Misconduct incidents, refer students and employees to on-campus resources, like the SAFER Campus Confidential Advocate (SAFER@csulb.edu | (562) 985-4770). For additional on and off campus resources, please flip this card over.
- Equity & Compliance -Title IX/DHR Office: If in doubt, call the Office of Equity & Compliance (562) 985-8256 for additional resources and assistance. For questions, please email us at OEC@csulb.edu.

*DHR stands for Discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation
