GRADUATE RECOGNITION
2020

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
LONG BEACH
Welcome to
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY LONG BEACH

California State University, Long Beach is a member of the 23-campus California State University (CSU) system. The initial college, known then as Los Angeles-Orange County State College, was established on January 29, 1949, and has since grown to become one of the state’s largest universities.

The first classes in 1949 were held in a converted apartment building on Anaheim Street and the cost to enroll was just $12.50. The 169 transfer students selected from the 25 courses offered in Teacher Education, Business Education, and Liberal Arts which were taught by 13 faculty members. Enrollment increased in 1953 when freshman and sophomore students were admitted.

Expansion, in acreage, degrees, courses, and enrollment, continued in the 1960s, when the educational mission was modified to provide instruction for undergraduate and graduate students through the addition of master’s degrees.

In 1972, the California Legislature changed the name to California State University, Long Beach. Today, more than 37,000 students are enrolled at Cal State Long Beach, and the campus annually receives high rankings in several national surveys.

What students find when they come here is an academic excellence achieved through a distinguished faculty, hard-working staff, and an effective and visionary administration. The faculty’s primary responsibility is to create, through effective teaching, research, and creative activities, a learning environment where students grow and develop to their fullest potential.

This year, we will celebrate the accomplishments of the more than 9,000 graduates and candidates. They are earning doctoral, master’s, and bachelor’s degrees as well as credentials and certificates. We are proud of our graduating students, who now go forward to serve society.
Dear Graduate,

Warmest congratulations from your Beach family!

The completion of a college degree is a significant milestone, one that brings a lifetime of intellectual, professional, and personal rewards.

That your graduation comes at such an extraordinary moment in time makes your achievement all the more remarkable. I want you to know that your focus, persistence, resolve, and engagement over the past few difficult months have been an inspiration to faculty, staff, and classmates — and to me personally.

I also want to emphasize that your Beach journey does not end here. You are joining a large and accomplished alumni community, now more than 350,000 members strong, and I encourage you to take advantage of every opportunity to network with and build on our great tradition of Beach Pride. The future may be unknowable, but your degree and your alma mater will always be mainstays in your life, as will so many of the connections and friendships you formed here. “The Beach is for Life!”

My thanks and congratulations also extend to your families and friends — to all of those who have supported, encouraged, and loved you as you pursued your academic dreams and adapted to this semester’s changed instructional environment. You are all heroes in my book.

Graduate, you are entering a world greatly in need of your talents and contributions. Wherever your path may lead, I urge you to be strong, take heart, and continue doing all of the things that brought you the academic success we celebrate today. This graduating class will always have a special place in my memory.

Go Beach!

Jane Close Conoley, Ph.D.
President

Dear Class of 2020,

Congratulations on achieving this consequential milestone on the journey of a lifetime.

I am sure that, when you look back upon your commencement in the years to come, it will be with mixed emotions. Most often, you’ll be filled with pride and a powerful – and well-earned – sense of accomplishment. Perhaps sometimes you’ll relive a sense of amazement at attaining a goal that, at times, felt more than a little daunting. At other times, you may feel disappointment because of the unique and disruptive challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. I understand. The culmination of your college experience was not as you had expected – a virtual celebration following months of virtual learning, made necessary by this global public health crisis of historic proportions.

On this last point, it is my hope that you will also remember the ingenuity, adaptability, resilience and indomitable spirit you, your classmates, and your faculty and staff have demonstrated during these unprecedented and challenging times. I know I will. I will forever admire the class of 2020, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. And I have every confidence that the qualities that you have shown through these difficult days will continue to serve you well as you encounter life’s inevitable periods of hardship and uncertainty.

So today, we celebrate you – and all the hard work, perseverance and scholarship that brought you to this day.

Of course, you did not make this journey alone. We also recognize the faculty who deepened your knowledge and inspired you to see the world from new perspectives. We acknowledge the counselors, advisors, librarians, coaches and support staff who championed you at every turn. And indeed, we appreciate the family, friends and loved ones who encouraged you, uplifted you and supported you along the way. Please remember to thank these important people, and let them know how much their support means.

We call today’s celebration a “commencement” because it is not an end, but rather a new beginning. As you start the next chapter of your life, I urge you to continue to wholeheartedly pursue knowledge, truth and innovation, and to strive to elevate your community, state, nation and – indeed – the world, as you achieve your personal and professional goals.

And I encourage you to stay in contact with your campus and the larger California State University community. Connect with classmates, seek out faculty as mentors and join alumni chapters. Look for opportunities to inspire and support future generations who seek to follow in your footsteps.

As a proud CSU graduate myself, I welcome you to the world’s largest and most influential alumni community – more than 3.8 million strong.

On behalf of the entire California State University, again, congratulations to the truly remarkable class of 2020.

Sincerely,

Timothy P. White
Chancellor
COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

The College of the Arts (COTA) at California State University, Long Beach is one of the largest and most respected state-supported arts colleges in the country. More than 3,500 majors and minors study in the School of Art, the Bob Cole Conservatory of Music, and the departments of Dance, Design, Film and Electronic Arts, and Theatre Arts. COTA has more than 100 full-time and 150 part-time faculty members allowing the College to offer nationally recognized, fully accredited degree programs, including the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Art, Dance, and Design; the Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Design; the Bachelor of Music Degree; the Master of Fine Arts Degree in Art, Dance, and Theatre Arts; the Master of Arts Degree in Design; the Master of Music Degree; and the MFA/MBA in Theatre Management. Post-Baccalaureate Art Certificates are offered in Museum Studies and Biomedical Illustration.

The learning opportunities within COTA reflect its commitment to the arts in all its forms. For students seeking a degree in the arts, the College of the Arts provides an environment designed for individual achievement in the context of a diverse, engaged community. Curriculum and classroom experiences are strategically crafted to honor and acknowledge tradition, history, and the evolution of art forms while also encouraging unique, singular voices, disruption of norms, and innovative creativity. At the core of our mission is an appreciation of all cultures and art forms, and acknowledgement of their lasting value to the quality of life.

In addition to our academic units, COTA is home to the Carolyn Campagna Kleefeld Contemporary Art Museum and the Richard and Karen Carpenter Performing Arts Center, important campus and community resources. Annually, the college offers more than 500 productions, exhibition days, screenings, lectures, presentations, concerts, and performances showcasing our students, faculty, alumni, visiting artists, and world-renowned arts innovators and creators. Our campus and college are a major cultural resource in Southern California.
