- IV. Announcement
 - A. From N. Salcedo:
 - i. OMA is excited to announce the recruitment of an Assistant Director for the LGBTQ+ Resource Center. OMA is searching for one staff representative and two student representatives to serve on the search committees. If your associations/ organizations have any interested members whose classification is equal or greater than Student Services Professional III please have them contact the search committee chair, Dr. Norma Salcedo, via email at Norma.Salcedo@csulb.edu by December 16. A call out and selection of faculty to serve as a volunteer committee member for the positions was sent via Academic Senate.
 1. Please forward to anyone you may know or in your networks who may be interested in applying. Looking for one faculty representative staff member and two student reps to serve on this hiring committee.
 - ii. We look forward to working with the community in identifying an ideal candidate. Further information about the position can be found here: <https://careers.pageuppeople.com/873/lb/en-us/job/507702/assistant-director-lgbtq-resource-center>.
 - iii. Hoping to fill the position ASAP. There will be two rounds of interviews.
 - iv. Question: Who can we thank for opening up this position? Dr. Beth Lensen can be one person, but it's also the work of students, staff and advocacy overall.

 - ii. New email: LGBTQIA-CCC@csulb.edu
- E. Changing the name of our committee – update from S. Miller
 - i. Newly edited wording based on the feedback from last meeting.
 - ii. The LGBTQIA+ Campus Climate Committee (LGBTQIA+ CCC) is a subcommittee of the general Campus Climate Committee. The mission of the LGBTQIA+ CCC is to collaborate with all segments of the University to recruit, retain, and promote the success of LGBTQIA+ students, staff, faculty, and administrators. LGBTQIA+ refers to lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, queer, intersex, asexual, aromantic, and all identities included in this continually evolving community. This acronym is meant to reflect all (a)sexual, (a)gender, and (a)romantic identities and expressions that move away from expectations associated with a sex/gender binary, or with the sex categories that people are assigned at birth. The committee membership also includes allies.
- F. Athletics training update – S. Miller
