- I. Call to Order
- II. Land Acknowledgment: CSULB is located on the sacred site of Puvungna. We acknowledge that we are on the land of the Tongva/Gabrieleño and the Acjachemen/Juaneño Nations who have lived and continue to live here. We recognize the Tongva/Acjachemen Nations and their spiritual connection as the first stewards and the traditional caretakers of this land. We thank them for their strength, perseverance and resistance

 - i. THANK YOU to Nicole and George for their amazing work!
 - ii. Template/prototype is up and running
 - iii. Lauren Jensen idea: “would you be able to if someone is interested in creating a rough / brief timeline of CSULB and LB queer history events? Ideally this is something that could be posted for queer diversity week, but doesn't have to. There's so much that gets forgotten and I'm hoping to have a way to preserve some of our history. I'm also wondering if this is something that could be housed/posted on the LGBTIQCC website. The LGBTQ Resource Center website isn't well managed / updated and the student assistant changes frequently. I'm not sure if there's a better place to post it where it could be updated as time goes on."

- D. LGBTQIA-related data in the HERI survey
 - i. Update from Dr. Miller
 - E. Ongoing: Social Media & Campus Pride Index Subcommittee update (Pedro)
 - F. Reminder: committee terms and term expiration dates

 - i. Syllabus from HSC attached (we discussed this last month)
 - H. Campus Trainings and Resources. Big picture: LGBTQIA+-related events, trainings, etc. happening on campus without any interaction with this committee. History/context? What to do?
 - i. The website should help with this
- VII. New Business
- A. Feedback requested on COTA Statement (Pedro):
 - i. https://docs.google.com/document/d/1QAQk4j_plieaBA_zgbYs2xx8y7sqCBkUR8ZZZ4pQtag/edit?usp=sharing
 - ii. FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION
COTA embraces freedom of expression in the arts and encourages students' creation of work that thoughtfully engages with all facets of the human experience. COTA recognizes that respect, openness, and inclusiveness are essential to creating a productive and constructive place for our students, faculty, and staff to teach, learn, study, create, and expand their fields. CSULB supports creative, thoughtful, and respectful discourse where conflicting perspectives are vigorously debated and thoroughly discussed. CSULB is dedicated to affording all members of the CSULB community the protections for free speech, expression, assembly, religion, and press available under the U.S. and California constitutions and all applicable federal and state laws, in accordance with the University's purpose and function except insofar as limitations on those freedoms are necessary to CSULB's functioning. For more information about the First Amendment, freedom of expression, and hate speech, see <http://web.csulb.edu/divisions/students/freespeech/faq.html> and <http://web.csulb.edu/divisions/students/freespeech/expression.html>
