Next Steps

Start planning early!

Can you believe that you can begin taking classes that you prepare you for college while you are in middle school? Take some time to look at a few different web sites that are available to help you plan for your future, and then answer these questions.

(www.californiacolleges.edu)

1. What is californiacolleges.edu? I am interested in finding more information on the different types of colleges. Where on this website can I find this information?
2. How many independent colleges and universities are in California?
3. If you are not sure about what you want to be when you grow up, where should you look?
4. What are the different types of financial aid?

(www.csumentor.edu)

1. What is csumentor.edu?
2. As an 8th grader, what does CSU mentor say you should be doing to prepare for college?
3. Looking under “testing information,” what is the ACT?”
4. I want to go to a college close to home, where can I go to find out which one that is?
5. Can I apply to a California State University (CSU) campus on this website? If yes, where?
