    - i. Dr. Josh Palkki was nominated as Char.
    - ii. Votes in favor 7-0 to elect Dr. Josh Palkki is our new chair.
  - b. Campus Pride Index
    - i. What are we missing in terms of fulfilling PRIDE INDEX ratings?
      - Equity and diversity gets the initial request, these are then delegated to each proper area. Equity complies (Carlos to check with Larissa for the process)
      - Lowest scores for CSULB: LGBT housing & Residence Life.
        - Heather confirmed that wait-listed students are used as "fillers" for dorms and do not have a choice.
      - Highest: Counseling and Health
    - ii. Who puts together the list of items/submits to INDEX?
      - Equity and diversity
      - What are the next steps once we know who puts this together?

Inquiry: Is there a desire to update this?

- c. Follow-up: Contact with Campus Facilities regarding updated maps (restrooms)
  - i. Map is up on CSULB. Concern that the maps are incomplete. Sometimes gender neutral restrooms not included if not accessible.
  - ii. For example: Are restrooms that are not open all the time included? Most are locked around 10PM when campus business is over. When asked for updated map, they (facilities) just gave the old one. Anna will follow up with ITS. About adding sub layers.
  - iii. A list of all restrooms is available on the general CSULB map, and this also has the restrooms listed on the interactive map.
  - iv. During conferences restrooms are turned into gender neutral restrooms i.e. women's restroom. This was done at Students of Color conference recently held in the USU.
- d. Follow-up: potential for WGSS to host digital space for LGBTIQ+ Resources on Campus – Move to next meeting.
