 - The Division of Student Affairs and the Office of Multicultural Affairs (OMA) are happy to announce the new Assistant Director for the LGBTQ+ Resource Center, Brenden Thomas Cashatt (they, them).

Brenden comes to The Beach with over 10 years of student affairs experience, ranging from Residence Education to Academic Integrity to Identity Center work. Brenden is a scholar-practitioner who brings experience in community development, transformational programming, group facilitation and policy change advocacy. Brenden is passionate about providing students with opportunities to learn about and engage in social justice and liberation work. Before coming to CSU, Long Beach, they served at San Diego State University as the Coordinator for the Economic Crisis Response Team and previously as a Residence Hall Coordinator. Brenden also served as the Associate Director of the LGBT Resource Center at Syracuse University and as the Program Coordinator of the LGBT Resource Center at University of California, Irvine. They earned their Masters Degree in Education from Seattle University and their Bachelors of Arts in English: Creative Writing from California State University, San Bernardino. In their free time, Brenden enjoys writing and performing Spoken Word, practicing yoga and meditation, and hiking with their husky, Weston. Please join me in welcome Brenden to the Beach community. Brenden can be reached at Brenden.Cashatt@csulb.edu.
