

College of Health and Human Services
School of Social Work

Part-time Lecturer Position

Position: Lecturers – Part Time in the School of Social Work teaching in a variety of specialty areas such as practice, human behavior, research, administration, policy, seminars. Teaching opportunities are available in both the graduate and undergraduate programs Monday through Saturday.

Required Qualifications:

A minimum of a Master in Social Work degree from an accredited program, two or more years of post MSW work experience, and demonstrated potential for teaching at the college level. Human Service workshops and training experience may be considered as augmentation for university teaching. Candidates must have the ability to communicate and work effectively with an ethnically and culturally diverse campus community.

Preferred Qualifications:

A Master in Social Work Degree, plus a Ph.D. or D.S.W. in Social Work or a closely related field. Two or more years of full-time equivalent teaching experience at the university level. Four or more years of post-MSW paid social work experience.

Duties:

- Teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses from departmental standard course outline, and adhere to posted student advising hours and other teaching responsibilities as specified in the faculty handbook. Mode of instruction may include in-person, hybrid, on-line, and/or any combination thereof.
- Attend one Faculty Meeting per semester

CSULB seeks to recruit faculty who enthusiastically support the University's strong commitment to the academic success of all of our students, including students of color, students with disabilities, students who are first generation to college, veterans, students with diverse socio-economic backgrounds, and students of diverse sexual orientations and gender expressions and identities. CSULB seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the People of California, to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer our students a rich variety of expertise, perspectives, and ways of knowing and learning.

Over the past 20 years, our Social Work faculty has assumed leadership in attracting over $94 million dollars in extramural funds and secured almost $21 million on behalf of local Long Beach human services, community organizations and education settings. Our curriculum prepares graduate students in three specialization areas: child and family well-being, integrated health, and adulthood and aging.

The mission of the School of Social Work is to educate and graduate diverse, ethical, competent social work students able to think critically and use evidence-based practice approaches to effectively serve culturally diverse, vulnerable individuals, families and communities in a wide variety of practice areas as practitioners, leaders and social justice advocates.

The School engages in collaborative, community-based research that enhances the well-being of vulnerable populations and disadvantaged communities. It also hopes to improve service delivery systems and contribute to social work knowledge. Our School also provides service to the community and the profession through the development of ongoing relationships with various groups. Those include grassroots community leaders, community-based non-profit organizations, governmental organizations, and foundations.

How to Apply - Required Documentation:

- Letter of application addressing the required and preferred qualifications
- An Equity and Diversity Statement about your teaching or other experiences, successes, and challenges in working with a diverse student population (maximum two pages, single-spaced). For further information and guidelines, please visit: <http://www.csulb.edu/EquityDiversityStatement>
- Curriculum Vitae (CV)
- Copy of transcript from institution(s) awarding degrees (doctoral and master's)
- Three current letters of recommendation

How to Apply: Letter of application and documents should be sent to:

Nancy Meyer-Adams, Ph.D., MSW, Director
California State University, Long Beach
School of Social Work
1250 Bellflower Boulevard
Long Beach, CA 90840-4602

nancy.meyer-adams@csulb.edu or 562-985-7774

EMPLOYMENT REQUIREMENTS:

A background check (including a criminal-records check and telephone reference check with most recent employer) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 Revised July 21, 2017 as a condition of employment.

---

CSULB is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can learn, live, and work in an atmosphere of tolerance, civility and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual, without regard to race or ethnicity (including color or ancestry), nationality, religion or religious creed, gender (or sex), gender identity (including transgender), gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, disability (physical or mental), medical condition, genetic information, age, veteran or military status. CSULB is an Equal Opportunity Employer