
California Education Code Section 44335 requires all candidates for a Multiple Subject, Single Subject, Education Specialist, or Designated Subjects Credential to demonstrate knowledge of the United States Constitution by completing a college level course, or a college level examination in the subject. This requirement must be completed before the credential can be granted.

The U.S. Constitution requirement can be met by successful completion of one of the following:

- 1. Graduation from a college or university within the California State University system.
- 2. Completion of a course on the provisions and principles of the U.S. Constitution taken at a regionally accredited community college, or a four-year college, or university.
 - a. At CSULB, you may take either POSC 100, or POSC 391 (Post-Bachelorette candidates should take POSC 391)
 - b. Verify if a course taken at another college or university meets the requirement by contacting the Credential Center at (562) 985-4109, or email ced-credentials@csulb.edu. Please provide a copy of your transcript and the course description (if possible).
- 3. Pass an examination on the Provisions and Principles of the U.S. Constitution offered by a regionally accredited college or university. Institutions offering an appropriate college-level examination are:
 - a. CSU, Dominguez Hills: www.csudh.edu/political-science/constitution-exam/
Exam: 50 multiple-choice questions
Cost: $25
 - b. UCLA Extension: www.uclaextension.edu/specialrequest/publicSpecialRequest.do?method=load
(scroll down to “US Constitution Test/Vocational Education”)
Exam: 75 true-false questions
Cost: $80
 - c. Notre Dame de Namur University: www.usconstitutionexam.com/
Exam: timed 50 multiple-choice questions
Registration: www.usconstitutionexam.com/Sign_up.html
Cost: $85