Enrolling in DANC 119/319

Students who have a legitimate course conflict that prevents them from attending the third session of a three-day technique class may still attend the technique course two days a week with the following:

- The DANC 119/319 Registration Petition, that includes:
 - Permission from the Technique Instructor and a dissemination of how a grade will be determined
 - A copy of the student's schedule printed from MyCSULB showing the enrolled course that provides the conflict
 - Permission from the Department Chair
 - A signed statement from the student stating that he/she understands the requirements for attending the course and receiving a grade

Approval is up to the discretion of the instructor.

After the Chair approves the petition for DANC 119/319 registration, Sylvia Rodriguez-Scholz will permit the student into DANC 119/319.

Earning DANC 499/599 credit for demonstrating for an instructor

Students may request to be a demonstrator for an activity/technique course in which the instructor grants approval. As a demonstrator, a student must attend all class sessions where activity takes place, and any other sessions deemed necessary by the instructor. Whether the course meets two or three days a week, a student may only enroll in DANC 499/599 for one unit. The Agreement for DANC 499/599, Demonstrator in Technique form must be filled out by the Instructor. Permission to enroll will be granted by Sylvia Rodriguez-Scholz after approval by the Chair.

Earning DANC 499/599 credit for a Directed Study

A student may work with a CSULB instructor to design an independent project or execute research of an advanced nature in an area of dance. Directed studies may be designed for 1-3 units, depending upon the nature of and time necessary for the study. All Directed Studies must be approved—instructor/mentors must fill out the Agreement for DANC 499/599 form and submit to the Chair for approval. Permission to enroll will be granted by Sylvia Rodriguez-Scholz after approval by the Chair.
