

Victim / Witness Assistance Program

Victims of domestic violence, hate crimes and/or sexual assault qualify for service through the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Victim/Witness Assistance Program, which has offices throughout the county. The Long Beach branch office of the Los Angeles County District Attorney can be reached by phone (562) 247-2000 or, (562) 247-2068.

Victims of domestic violence/hate crimes have the right to make a citizen's arrest. The police officer presenting the victim with this form shall advise the victim how to safely carry out a citizen's arrest.

Victims of domestic violence, hate crimes and sexual assaults have the right to petition the Superior Court requesting any of the following orders for relief:

1. An order restraining the attacker from abusing the victim and other family members.
2. An order directing the attacker to leave the household.
3. An order preventing the attacker from entering the residence, school, Business, or victim's place of employment.
4. An order awarding custody of, or visitation with a minor child or children.
5. An order restraining the attacker from molesting or interfering with minor children in the custody of the victim.
6. An order directing the party, not granted custody, to pay support of the minor children, if that party has a legal obligation to do so.
7. An order directing the defended to make specified debt payments coming due while the order is in effect.
8. An order directing the either or both parties participate in counseling.

Victims of domestic violence, hate crimes and sexual assault have the right to file a civil lawsuit for losses suffered as a result of abuse, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, damage to property and any other related expense incurred by the victim or agency that shelters the victim.
