Important Items to Know:

- Cal State Apply applications can be submitted anytime between October 1 and December 15.
- Applicants will be contacted if they are eligible to proceed with the CSULB Application (January).
- Pre-requisites must be completed by end of the Spring Semester of the year you are applying; there are no exceptions, regardless if you are a transfer or native applicant.
- Admission decisions will be sent after application packets are evaluated. CSULB has rolling admissions and decisions begin in mid-February, but decisions will be sent after the evaluation process by the School of Social Work.
- Admissions is contingent upon the successful completion of units and courses in progress.
